

Weakness [Lyrics]

[Acoustic] by Josh Coad

Intro

Verse 1

Lord, I know I am failing
To be the person I pretend to be
I make enemies so I can hide
From the one I fear, the one inside

Pre-Chorus

We cannot see all of our lies
Son of God, we need you to show us how to die

Chorus 1

Spirit, guide me through my shame
To reckon with my wounds and see another's pain
Help me rest in lack and listen to the need
I rejoice in my weakness for it's where you make me free

Verse 2

Lord, we know we are failing
To be the people we pretend to be
We make enemies so we can hide
From the ones we fear, the ones inside

We cannot see all of our lies
Son of God, we need you to show us how to die

Chorus 2

Spirit, guide us through our shame
To reckon with our wounds and see another's pain
Help us rest in lack and listen to the need
We rejoice in our weakness for it's where you make us free
We rejoice in our weakness for it's where you make us free
