

Beloved

Beloved: The House That Words Built

March 13th & 14th

Speaker: Dr. Dick Foth

Scripture: James 1:16-18

Series Overview

“This is the marvel of marvels,” said C.S. Lewis, “that he called me Beloved.” We are beloved by God. His love is where we find our identity, our security, our authority. Then, and only then, can we become what Dr. King called the beloved community. We lead with love - we love because He first loved us.

Series Discussion Questions

What does it mean to be a beloved community?

Message-Specific Discussion Questions

What is the sound of a beloved community?

What does it take to move from diversity, to unity, to beloved?

Dr. Foth says, “There is something about Scripture that soaks into every part of our brain.” What takes up residence in your brain the most? Is it Scripture or something else?

What do you believe can happen when you take time to listen across generations?

What does Scripture memorization look like in your life? If it is not a regular practice, what is one step you can take towards making scripture memorization a part of your life?

What does God speaking to you look like and how do you normally respond?

Practical Application

- NCC Daily continues this week covering our Beloved series. Join us Monday through Friday as we dig deeper throughout this season of Lent.
- Climb the stairs to the Upper Zoom each Tuesday, Wednesday, and Thursday at 7:14am. We'll come together as a community to start our days in His presence together, listening intently, and responding in prayer. Register at ncc.re/UpperZoom.
